P R E F A C E .

It is with much regret that the writer has seen the present Volume through the press on account of the death of William Brigg, B.A., who was his friend and correspondent for many years, and who died on the 7th December, 1921, aged 63. He transcribed the whole of the first Register Book of Mirfield, the first portion of which was printed under his supervision in 1919, and the remaining portion now.

William Brigg was an original member of the Society, a member of the Council, an enthusiastic genealogist and a most neat and accurate copyist. He presented to the Society in 1914 a Volume containing the Baptisms and Marriages at Harewood Church to 1812, and copied and edited for the Society the Registers of Otley, Snaith and Terrington. He abstracted the Wills in Register Wootton, 1658, a large portion of which is in print and the remainder might well be printed by a Society such as the Harleian.

For the Yorkshire Record Series he abstracted two Volumes of Stuart Fines, and for the Thoresby Society he copied Lay Subsidies and early Wills. In addition he printed Registers of Churches in London and adjoining counties, and edited the "Herts. Genealogist and Antiquary."

The printing of the Mirfield Register by the Society was proposed by the late Mr. Edward Theodore Ingham, B.A., the patron of the living and a considerable landowner in the parish, through the marriage in 1764 of his ancestor Joshua Ingham to the daughter and heiress of Richard Shepley of Overhall. Mr. Ingham expressed his intention to defray largely the cost of printing the Register, but his death on the 27th day of March, 1918, occurred before the first part was completed. His son, Mr. Joshua Lister Ingham, generously gave a substantial donation towards the expense of printing the first portion in order that the work might be proceeded with, and has kindly given a further donation towards this portion.

The printed copy has been carefully compared by the writer with the original Register, and very few corrections have been necessary. The index has been prepared by Miss Nancy Saywell.

MEMORANDA at end of Volume

This is to certify that the eleventh stall on y<sup>e</sup> south side of y<sup>e</sup> Church next to the great Door was set up and repair'd with my consent by the Church Wardens John Heblethwait and Abraham Hemingway at their own Expence as witness my Hand. 24 Oct<sup>r</sup> 1768. Jos. Ismay Vicar.

Oct. 20, 1775. There happened this day a most dreadful Inundation at Leeds, Mirfield &c. several Lives were lost and many Bridges carried away by the Fury of the Torrent. Part of Ledgard Bridge in this Parish was broke down and swept away by the Current. It was repair'd by the Weapontake in 1776. A new navigable Canal was made between Shepley Bridge and Ledgard Mill in the Parish of Mirfield in the year 1776.

Ledgard Bridge over the River Calder in this Parish was carried away by the violence of the Torrent Oct: 8, 1767 and being indicted at y<sup>e</sup> Quarter Sessions, was rebuilt and repair'd in 1768, at y<sup>e</sup> Expence of the Weapontake of Agbrigg and Morley, pursuant to an Order made for that purpose by the Justices of Peace at the General Quarter Sessions held at Pontefract Ap: 11th 1768. J. Ismay Vic<sup>r</sup>.

Be it remembered, That one Pew containing six seats (being the third Pew from the Front on the north side of the West Gallery in Mirfield Church) was sold and conveyed by M<sup>r</sup> Samuel Gill of Earthorp to M<sup>r</sup> Samuel Brook of Mount Pleasant in the Parish of Mirfield for the sum of six Pounds six shillings this fifth day of Dec<sup>r</sup> 1776. Witness, Jos. Ismay Vicar of Mirfield, Abr<sup>m</sup> Sheard Parish Clerk.

Be it Remembered that M<sup>r</sup> George Armitage of Castle Hall was empowered by Wid<sup>w</sup> Thornton of Towngate to dispose of the Second Pew on the Northside of the West Gallery, by which he made an Exchange with M<sup>r</sup> Sam<sup>l</sup> Brook of West Mills for the third Pew on the same side in the abovesaid Gallery. After which he sold the third Pew to James Copley and Thomas Barnes, James Copley having agreed to Sitt at the End next to the Door and Tho<sup>s</sup> Barnes at the other Ende. George Copley son of the above said James Copley hath sold the three Sittings next to the door in the above said Pew to Joseph Wheatley at Bottom of Church Lane for the Sum of Six Pounds Six Shillings as wittness [my crossed out] our Hand this 21th Day of January 1815. George Copley, Joseph Wheatley. Wittness Tho<sup>s</sup> Sedgwick Vicar, Richard Shepley.

Be it Remembered that the abovesaid Thomas Barnes hath sold the three remaining Seats in the above mention'd Pew to Joseph Wheatley at the Bottom of Church Lane for the sum of Four Pounds four Shillings
